

THE GOLDEN AGE

HOOK

You are immersed into Ancient Islamic life.

- Watch clips about Malala and have a brief look at her life.
- Explore the Ancient City of Baghdad.
- Have a brief look at Caliph Harun al-Rashid, our key historical figure.
- Make some art using Islamic patterns.

OUTCOME

Time Travel to 'The Golden Age'.

'Visit' a street in Baghdad which includes a stall full of their designs, a market for trading and a museum of all your learning.

Become the market traders for Year 6 and present your news reports on the life of Malala.

English

Understand and explore the features of news reports.

English

Write a news report about the events that happened to Malala.

History

To look at how the Silk Road enabled Baghdad to become the cultural capital of the world.

History

Use sources and evidence to contrast life in the Golden Age (Baghdad) and in the Dark Ages (London).

Geography

Investigate trade and why it is so important.

History

Explore the timeline of events from ancient Islamic civilisation.

English

Immerse and understand the themes in 'Free as a Bird – The Story of Malala'.

Computing

Create a game using 'Scratch' where players can progress through levels.

Geography

Look at the importance of time zones.

Geography

Look at the geographical features of Baghdad and compare to other urban settlements.

English

Explore and write a news report on a young person who has had an impact on the world.

