

READING NEWSLETTER

AUTUMN 1

AUTHOR SPOTLIGHT

Louie Stowell loves to write books about magic, gods, monsters and adventures and her 'Loki Rules' book series have proved to be extremely popular with the Abbotswood children!

Louie lives in London with her wife, her dog Buffy, and a creepy puppet that she thinks is probably cursed....

CHECK OUT THE BOOK

'I am Loki, the trickster and the greatest of all gods.'
Loki the mighty trickster god has been banished by Odin for bad behaviour to live on Earth as an eleven-year-old boy.

Things he cannot do on Earth: reveal his awesome godly powers.

Things he MUST do on Earth if he wants to get back home: go to school, do good deeds, write a diary.
He'll also have to sort out the chaos that erupts after the goddess Freyja arrives in town - or face TERRIBLE consequences ...

Watch out for the chaos!

READING AMBASSADOR'S

It has been wonderful to have our new Year 6 Reading Ambassadors start this term.

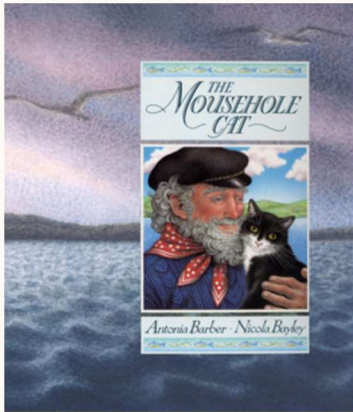

Congratulations to Tommy, Toby, Willow, Ivy, Ava, Tallulah, Eden, Freya and Lucy!

They are looking forward to welcoming everyone to the library and are here to help the children build their love for books!

CLASS LIBRARY READS

WHAT'S NEXT FOR RICH READS....

YEAR 3

'The Mousehole Cat'
by Antonia Barber.

YEAR 5

'The Jamie Drake
Equation'
by Christopher Edge.

YEAR 5

'The Atlas of Space
Adventures' by Anne McRae.

YEAR 4

'Viking Boy'
by Tony Bradman

YEAR 6

'Wolf Brother'
by Michelle Paver.

UPCOMING EVENTS

After half term we will be launching our popular 'Abbotswood Reading Challenge', joining in with the 'Hampshire Illustrated Book Awards' and holding our Scholastic Autumn Book Fair.

